Day 2 – Phnom Penh – Koh Dach Silk Island – Kampong Cham

Following breakfast, take a short transfer to the northeast of Phnom Penh to Koh Dach Island, which is renowned for the thousands of silk weavers and the quality of the silk they produce. The island itself is a rural paradise, an oasis of tranquility. Take a boat across the Mekong River to the island, from here we pick up our bicycles and start our ride through the picturesque countryside and rice paddies. Stop at local family home to observe their silk work still woven on old looms. Put our bikes on the ferry and cruise to the other side of the river and continue peddling along river bank. We finish our ride at the pier, hop on your transport and transfer to Kampong Cham, a peaceful town on the banks of the Mekong River.

Cycling distance: Approx. 40 km

Difficulty: Easy

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: The LBN Asian Hotel/ROH

Add: Along the road of Kampong Cham River Park, St Preah Sihanouk, Kampong Cham, Kampong Cham Province

Day 3 – Kampong Cham – Kratie

A full day ride will take us to Kratie, a little town on the Mekong River, which is known for sightings of the rare, fresh water Irrawaddy Dolphins.

After breakfast, we cycle along the Mekong Trail. The ride takes us through one of the Mekong's 'biodiversity hot spots' where non-government organizations are working with local communities to survey and protect the biological richness of the river. The ride winds through rice paddy scenery and small traditional Khmer villages.

After a 20 km ride we will stop at Phnom Hanchey temple, sitting atop a hill from where you can see a fantastic view of the mighty Mekong. We continue to Steung Trong to take the ferry to the other side of the river and enjoy a picnic lunch. Then we continue to cycle along the river, passing through the biggest Muslim or Cham area in Cambodia, then we continue on till we get to Chhloung where we continue to Kratie. On arrival we will take the ferry across to Trong Island for cooking class at the home of Mrs Cheata. Overnight at Homestay.

Cycling distance: Approx. 50 km

Difficulty: Easy/Moderate

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Homestay

Day 4 – Kratie – Dolphins – Steung Treng

Following breakfast, we take a horse cart ride around the island to plant a tree for the community then return to the home stay to say goodbye to our hosts and board the ferry to Kratie. Enjoy 1 hour riding to the market to see the local daily life and know how they make their living. Then we head to Prey Kampy to catch the boat to see the freshwater dolphins and ride to Steung Treng while enjoying a scenic along the Mekong River. You will pass through typical Cambodian countryside with views of rice paddies and Khmer traditional stilt houses. Stung Treng is Cambodia's most remote province, wedged into the far north of the country near the Laos Border.

Day 8 – Roluos temple and Angkor Wat biking

Today you will start to visit the Roluos temple group. We ride on quiet country roads passing through villages, Khmer pagodas, lotus ponds and rice paddies. Enjoy the peaceful ambience of the countryside. The ruins of Roluos are among the oldest Khmer monuments in the area, dating back to the 9th century reign of King Indravarman I. Witness the evolution of these magnificent temples from the early days of the Khmer empire up to its peak with the Angkor temples in the 13th century. There are three key Hindu structures that remain at Roluos; Lolei, Bakong and Preah Ko, which were all part of the ancient city of Hariharalaya. You will have the chance to peacefully explore the temples and soak up the local atmosphere away from the crowds. Cycle back to the town to explore Angkor Wat with stops at the Death Gate, Victory Gate, Terraces of Elephants and Leper King, and Srah Srang. Then enjoy watching the sunset from Phnom Bakeng.
