Action-packed Thai boxing matches are held every night of the week in Bangkok at the Lumphini Boxing Stadium on night of Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Take a ringside seat to watch the young Thai fighters in action. You will find this a most thrilling spectacle, in part due to the electric atmosphere, raucous crowd and frantic betting that comes with Thai boxing. Day 2: Biking Bangkok – Transfer to Kanchanaburi (Join in guided biking tour)

After breakfast, our driver will pick you up from the hotel lobby and take you to Rajadamnoen Klang Road near Khao San Road in Banglamphu for starting the Historic Bangkok cycling tour. After a quick bike fitting and briefing, you'll head out ready and raring to go. You'll begin by winding your way through the back streets of suburban Bangkok and small laneways along the riverside, and cross the famous Rama VIII bridge then ride through a local community. No busy highways for you, this is the real

Bangkok and you'll be journeying right through the heart of it. You'll follow the path along the Bangkok Noi Canal, which will lead you to the spectacular Wat Arun. The relaxing bike ride here won't make you short of breath, but this unbelievable emblem of Bangkok is definitely set to take your breath away. This temple is known for its intricate architectural design and historical significance, and you'll take a moment at this point to drink in the view and learn about Wat Arun and the surrounding neighborhood from your local guide.

From Wat Arun, you'll head back across the river to Pranakorn, over the beautiful Memorial Bridge. Here, you'll pay a visit to another gorgeous temple named Wat Suthat, home to the largest golden seated Buddha in Thailand. If those two temples weren't legendary enough, your final stop on this city tour in Bangkok will take you to Sao Ching Cha, a giant swing which represents the movement of the God Shiva, and each part of the swing represents different parts of the Earth. Get ready to snap your third epic Bangkok landmark photo with this one, it's a gem. From here, you'll head back to where the journey began to finish your Bangkok bike adventure, where you can continue to explore or your local guide will be able to give you directions back to your accommodation. This day tour is a gentle 20km journey through the backstreets and canals of Bangkok, and is suitable for anyone who can ride a bike.

In summer the weather is sweltering, but it is cool between

November and February. The main feature of the park is the stunning 7 levels Erawan Waterfall. We then head to the Hellfire Pass Memorial which was built to honour the Allied POW's and Asian Conscripts who died while constructing some of the most difficult stretches of the Thai-Burma railway.

The curved spans of the bridge are the original sections.

Visit the Kanchanaburi War Cemetery, the notorious Burma-Siam railway, built by Commonwealth, Dutch and American prisoners of war, was a Japanese project driven by the need for improved communications to support the large Japanese army in Burma. During its construction, approximately 13,000 prisoners of war died and were buried along the railway. An estimated 80,000 to 100,000 civilians also died in the course of the project, chiefly forced labour brought from Malaya and the Dutch East Indies, or conscripted in Siam (Thailand) and Burma (Myanmar).
