Take a journey off the beaten path and visit lands unknown. Southern Laos is a beautiful region seldom visited, take time to explore the forests along the Cambodian border and enjoy the languid sunsets of the Mekong River on 4,000 Islands, before heading south into Cambodia. After further exploration, the trip culminates in a visit to the famous temples of Angkor.

Day 1 – Pakse Arrival – Bolaven Plateau

Upon arrival Pakse Airport, after clearing all customs procedures, please walk to the main exit gate, you will be met by our guide who have a signboard with your name on it. If you are unable to find the representative, please call our Operations Manager for immediate assistance on (+856) (0) 20 2333 3395 or the local emergency number listed on your voucher (+856) (0) 20 5597 1123. Transfer from the airport to Bolaven Plateau, stay overnight at Sinouk Coffee Resort.

Meal: None

Accommodation: Sinouk Coffee Resort - Superior (Chalet 2/3)

Day 2: Bolaven Plateau Full Day Tour – Ban Kiet Ngong

Formed by an ancient volcano and famous for its coffee and tea plantations, the Bolaven Plateau is home to a number of tribal villages, some of them still practicing Stone Age techniques including the use of extremely primitive agricultural tools and animal sacrifices in an animist belief system. Enjoy a full-day tour of the area starting with the Tad Lo Waterfall, a series of three falls named Tad Suong, Tad Lo and Tad Hang. Continue to the Tad Fane Waterfalls where lunch is served in this scenic location. Beyond the waterfall stretches the extensive jungle of Dong Hua Sao from where the perfectly synchronized twin falls originates and drop down a 200m (656ft) gorge. Walk to the impressive 42m (138ft) Tad Yeung Waterfall surrounded by lush vegetation. End the day with a visit to a tea and coffee plantation and learn why the Bolaven Plateau is an ideal area to grow these crops. Later, drive to Ban Kiet Ngong and stay overnight at Kingfisher Ecolodge after enjoying a delightful set dinner.

Kingfisher Ecolodge is a small lodge situated in an idyllic location adjacent to the Kiet Ngong Ramsar Protected Wetlands where you can often see Buffalo and Elephants walking through the long grass.

NOTES:

- It is recommended that guests wear proper walking attire for the visits to the waterfalls as these areas can be slippery at times.

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Kingfisher Ecolodge - Comfort Bungalow

Day 3: Ban Kiet Ngong – Forest Trekking – Camping

Depart Kingfisher lodge at 9am. We begin by taking a walk up to Phou Asa and admire the panoramic views of the Kiat Ngong Wetland and village. Walk to see the footprint cave about 2km further on and continue about 3 hours more to our lunch stop at a great view point overlooking the Mekong River valley and lowlands. Along the way our skilled guides will highlight points of interest in the forest and demonstrate the uses of certain items including cooking in bamboo. After lunch continue enjoying the view as we continue walking to Chan Deang waterfall about 5km further and our camp for the night. We should arrive about at 3pm and begin setting up the camp. You can help or our guides will do it for you. Our local guides will prepare you a tasty dinner while you relax the meantime, depending on the season take the chance of a cooling dip in the waterfall.

Trekking Distance: Approximately 12km

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Basic Tented Forest Camp (Tents, sleeping bags and mats provided)

Day 4: Forest Trekking – Ban Kiet Ngong

This morning your guides will prepare breakfast for you at 7:30am, after breakfast we will walk 1km up to a little hill to a viewpoint and have a short break before continuing for other 4km to reach our picnic point at Mak Fang, after a delightful picnic and rest we walk back through the forest back to the lodge arriving at approximately 4pm.

Tonight dine in style at Kingfisher Ecolodge in your own exclusive private candlelight Sala. As the light descends, candles and torches will light your way and you can relax to the sounds of nature surrounding the beautiful Kiet Ngong protected wetland area with the ominous Bolaven Plateau as this evening's backdrop. You will be presented with a pre-selected menu consisting of local delights accompanied by free flow house wine local beer or Soft drinks. You can remain to enjoy this romantic setting as long as you wish before departing back to your room at leisure.

Trekking Distance: Approximately 14km

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Kingfisher Ecolodge - Comfort Bungalow

Day 5: Ban Kiet Ngong – 4,000 Islands

After a leisurely breakfast, transfer to the 4,000 Islands and board a long-tail boat to the island of Don Khone on the Mekong River. Upon arrival, enjoy lunch followed by a walking tour of the island, visit to the Liphi Waterfalls, nicknamed the “Corridor of the Devil”, a natural border between Laos and Cambodia. Later, explore the island on foot. Once a small French settlement, Don Khone features some colonial-era buildings including an old pier, a railway station, a former French hospital building and the maritime office.

Stay overnight on the Don Khone Island.

Walking Distance: Approximately 7km

Meal: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Sala Done Khone Hotel - Ban Lao

Day 6: Don Khone – Laos/Cambodia Border – Kayaking Ou Svay – Ratanakiri

This morning, board another boat back to the mainland and transfer to Voeunxham, stop en-route to visit the Khone Phapheng Waterfalls, a highlight of southern Laos, covering an impressive 10km (6mi) stretch of the Mekong. Arrive at the Cambodia / Laos international border for immigration processing, and say goodbye to our Lao guide and driver who have supported us along the way.

After clearing immigration meet your guide and transfer to a small village where we will board a boat and head up river to the village of Preh Rumkel where you can take a kayak and paddle to see the Irrawaddy Dolphins that make their home in the deep pools found on the Cambodian Side of the border. After lunch you will continue your kayak to Ou Svay, kayak through the flooded forests a Ramsar Wetland which supports a large variety of birds along the river. Enjoy the remoteness of the area and feeling of being completely at one with nature. Once you begin kayaking, the scenery is immediately dramatic and shows many large trees sticking out of the water with their roots grown into the direction of the Mekong currents. The small islands appear everywhere around. In the wet season the water levels are higher and you will not see many islands. Your trip will end at Ou Svay where your vehicle will transfer you to Ratanakiri. We will arrive there around 6pm.

Day 8: Banlung – Siem Reap – Khmer Food Delights Evening Experience By Tuk Tuk

After breakfast, visit Banlung market until the time comes to board our transport to Siem Reap, which will take around 7 hours' drive, stopping along the way for lunch. Arrive in Siem Reap and check in to your hotel, the rest of the day is free at leisure.

Spend the evening with your private guide gaining a genuine insight into Cambodian food the way the locals like it. You will be picked up from your hotel in the early evening and whisked away by tuk tuk as darkness begins to fall. We begin the evening with a quick stop to sample a traditional Cambodian Tipple with a twist. You will rejoin your tuk tuk where you will continue on to Angkor Kyung Yu road, otherwise known as Road 60 where busy street food stalls, well away from the cozy tourist bars line up along the streets. This area is hugely popular with local families who come out to dine in the early evening, it's a real feast for the senses. You will sample a range of exotic fruits, grilled meats and if you're brave enough fried insects. Cambodians love to eat and virtually anything is on the menu. A stop at a truly local restaurant will ensure that even those with the heartiest appetites will not go hungry.

OVERVIEW

INDOTREK

You can enjoy a local beer or two along the way if you so wish to wash all the tasty morsels down.
