Day 2: Siem Reap full day biking around temples – Khmer food delights evening experience by tuk tuk

Start the day with a ride to Ta Prohm. This beautiful temple is Angkor's jewel and is overgrown with fig trees, giving a haunting yet exotic atmosphere. The magnificent roots of the trees have merged themselves over the centuries with the temple's huge stone blocks, emphasizing a 'forgotten city' feeling. Continuing to Banteay Kdei, which is one of Angkor's largest structures in the area and well worth a visit.

Lunch is at local restaurant.

In the afternoon visit the ancient royal city of Angkor Thom with its magnificent centre piece; the Bayon. At first glance, it may seem like a shapeless mass of stone, but further scrutiny reveals towers with enigmatic faces of former King Jayavarman VII looking into every direction. The faces are believed to be protecting the city from potential attackers. Continue the exploration with a visit to the Terrace of the Elephants, which served as a platform from where the King could welcome back his victorious army. Next door is the Terrace of the Leper King which holds perfect carvings winding along a narrow passage way that leads to the Baphuon complex. (Maximum of 14 kilometres cycling)

Spend the evening with your private guide gaining a genuine insight into Cambodian food the way the locals like it. You will be picked up from your hotel in the early evening and whisked away by tuk tuk as darkness begins to fall. We begin the evening with a quick stop to sample a traditional Cambodian Tipple with a twist. You will rejoin your tuk tuk where you will continue on to Angkor Kyung Yu road, otherwise known as Road 60 where busy street food stalls, well away from the cozy tourist bars line up along the streets. This area is hugely popular with local families who come out to dine in the early evening, it's a real feast for the senses. You will sample a range of exotic fruits, grilled meats and if you're brave enough fried insects. Cambodians love to eat and virtually anything is on the menu. A stop at a truly local restaurant will ensure that even those with the heartiest appetites will not go hungry. You can enjoy a local beer or two along the way if you so wish to wash all the tasty morsels down. If time allows you will take a walk through the alleys and side streets around the old market area tasting as you go. Our final stop of the evening will be to sample a flight of local craft beers to really finish of a great evening of culinary exploration. We will return back to your hotel or you can choose to stay and relax in the bar.
